

Can you come to my house or an alternative location?

In special circumstances, I have met with clients at their homes or other locations. However, it is almost always more efficient and cost-effective to meet at an office. My office provides a conference table and privacy - or we can arrange to meet at an alternative location.