

Because there is typically only one court appearance to enter the final Agreement and the workload of gathering financial information is greatly reduced, the total cost of hiring the Collaborative Divorce Team is usually less than the cost of hiring two lawyers to litigate a divorce. A collaborative divorce typically costs less than 1/3 the cost of a traditional, litigated divorce. The actual cost depends on how long it takes to reach an agreement that is acceptable to both parties.